

2009 “Salute to the Red, White & Blue” 4th of July
T-Shirt Design Contest!!

The East Point Main Street Association (EPMSA) is proud to announce the 1st Annual “Salute to the Red, White & Blue” 4th of July Fireworks Celebration T-Shirt Design Contest! EPMSA is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization focused on promoting and enhancing the Downtown ‘Main Street District’. Among other things, we plan and produce several events each year, including Destination East Point, East Point Celebrates the Holidays and the 4th of July Fireworks Celebration, “Salute to the Red, White & Blue”. Last year over 10,000 people attended the 4th of July Celebration in Downtown East Point!

We are offering a $100 cash prize to the East Point, College Park or Hapeville resident or student that comes up with the winning design for the 2009 T-shirt. The winning design will be printed on the 2009 4th of July T-shirt, showcased on our website and the winner will be introduced on stage at the 4th of July Fireworks Celebration!

Rules for the Contest are as follows:

- Design must fill an 8 1/2" x 11" sheet of paper
- Design may be black & white or color
- Design must relate to or say something about the 4th of July

Deadline for entries is June 15, 2009.

Please fill out the form below and email a scan(color if applicable) of the design by the deadline listed above. The design will be judged by the EPMSA board and we will notify the winner by June 25th via the information provided below. Please send an email to GeneralInfo@DowntownEastPoint.com with any questions you may have. We look forward to seeing your entry!
